

It is easy to feel as though your life is out of control at times. Everything is going wrong - one bad break or dead-end after another. None of it makes sense. But you need to realize that it is not happening by accident. The enemy didn't somehow wrestle the controls of your life away from God, and now He is standing by hoping things work out for you. No! God has you firmly in the palm of His mighty hand. He has promised that nothing can snatch you away. Him being for you is more than the world being against you.

The way to stay in faith is to recognize it is all a part of God's plan, which He promises to work out. Don't waste your time trying to figure everything out, living frustrated over disappointments or disillusioned over what is not happening. Try a new approach. It is very freeing when you can say: "God, I don't understand it, but I trust You. I know You are working all things for my good, so I am going to stay in peace, knowing that You will get me to where I am supposed to be."

Isaiah 41:10 "Do not yield to fear, for I am always near. Never turn your gaze from Me, for I am your faithful God. I will infuse you with My strength and help you in every situation. I will hold you firmly with My victorious right hand."
