

'Deserts' represent hard places in our lives, barren places, difficult seasons that could overwhelm us. When you look back over your life, you can see the times when God gave you water in the 'desert'. At the time you may not have realized it. You were so caught up in the troubles and trying to make it through, you didn't recognize it was the grace of God giving you the strength, the favour, and helping you do what you couldn't do alone. It is good to always take time to reflect on the goodness of God.

No matter what you go through - an illness, a divorce, a betrayal - because you are a child of the Most High God, there is going to be water in the 'desert'. It is not going to overwhelm you. It is not going to be too much. God is going to give you strength that you cannot explain, courage that you didn't know you had, favour that you didn't see coming, and the right people at the right time to help you. Get ready. When He makes the water flow, you will flourish and blossom in the 'desert'.

Isaiah 48:21 "They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split the rock and water gushed out."